Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 48-54 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 48, Ozawa et al (US 5,357,091) discloses a card suitable for use in a portable computing device comprising an antenna and a radio transceiver disposed in the card. Dudas et al (US 5,519,577) discloses a PCMCIA card having two antennas disposed therein. Neither Ozawa nor Dudas, however, either taken singly or in combination, fairly teaches or suggests the configuration comprising first and second antennas disposed in the card and coupled to the transceiver in the card; and a microprocessor in the card arranged to select one of the first and second antennas.

Claims 49-52 are allowed for depending on claim 48.

Regarding claim 53, Ozawa discloses an apparatus for radio communication comprising a communication card including a radio circuit disposed within and a communication card antenna interface electrically coupled to the radio circuit; a computing device including a housing and an opening in the housing for receiving the communication card within the housing. Ozawa, however, fails to further teach a microprocessor and a computing device surface including a plurality of antenna contacts, each contact being arranged to electrically couple to a corresponding one of the plurality of antennas, the communication card surface being arranged to engage the computing device surface so that the communicating card antenna interface engages the plurality of antenna contacts; and a plurality of antennas connected to the computing device, wherein the communication card antenna interface is configured to selectively couple to at least one of the antennas selected by the microprocessor when the communication card is located within the opening of the housing.

Claim 54 is allowed for depending on claim 53.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
